The Friends of the Museum

The Aim

The Friends' Association aims to generally further the charitable purposes of the museum in the education of the public through promotion, support, assistance and improvement of the museum facilities in conjunction with the museum management and staff.

The Military Museum

The Museum is based in the historic Chester Castle. It is proud to represent the interests and histories of the following Regiments and organisations:

- The 3rd Carabiniers (Prince of Wales Dragoon Guards)
- The 5th Royal Inniskilling Dragoon Guards
- The Cheshire Regiment
- The Cheshire Yeomanry
- Eaton Hall Officer Cadet School

The Collection

The collection comprises nine exhibition rooms, each depicting specific periods. Displays include items from all our representative regiments. A guidebook (discounted price to Friends) will assist your journey through the history and valour contained within the Museum's walls.

Academia

The Museum has strong links with the Department of History and Archaeology at the University of Chester. The University offers a Masters degree in Military History and runs an annual visiting speaker programme in military history while the large collection of archives has been made available for academic research, an arrangement that is beneficial to both the University and the Museum.
