

From Boyne to Basra is a short, easy to read, pocket history of the 22nd (Cheshire) Regiment. A must for anyone who has an interest in the Regiment. It follows the exploits of the regiment from 1689, when the unit was raised on the Roodee, through to 2007, when, on return from active duty in Basra, the men of Cheshire become the 1st Battalion the Mercian Regiment (Cheshire).

The book costs only £8.50 and is for sale at the Cheshire Military Museum in the Castle in Chester CH1 2DN.

To purchase a copy by post please print out this pdf and write the name and address of where the book should be sent to. Make out a cheque to the "Cheshire Military Museum" for £11.00 to cover the recorded postage and packaging. Send both items to the Cheshire Military Museum, The Castle, Chester, Ch1 2DN. For more information on the book call the castle on 01244 327617.